

Western New York Sustainable Business Roundtable

Creating an environmentally and economically resilient Buffalo-Niagara

ERIC LINDSTROM SUSTAINABILITY STAR AWARD

This award honors our colleague, friend and one of the original members of the team that developed the SBR; Eric Lindstrom. This is presented to an individual who has gone above and beyond to create an environmentally and economically resilient Western New York. The honoree does not need to be a member of SBR to be considered for this award, however SBR members must nominate all candidates. Nominations will be accepted through March 18th, 2020.

If you are currently not an SBR member and want to nominate an individual for the award, complete the membership application found on our website (<https://www.wnysustainablebusiness.org/tojoin/>) and attach to this application. You will be contacted upon the approval of your membership application.

The awarded individual will receive a certificate from the Board of Directors and an award made from recycled glass. The awardee will be recognized at our annual marquee event, the Sustainable Business Summit in May, and highlighted on SBR's website and social media channels.

Please submit the nomination form to the SBR Coordinator, Asa Guilamo, at asa@wnysustainablebusiness.org. Please title your subject line with your Individual's name + 2020 Eric Lindstrom Sustainability Star Award, and attach photos, videos & weblinks, if available.

I am nominating

For the 2020 Eric Lindstrom Sustainability Star Award

Contact Info for Individual (Company or Organization, Email, and Phone)

Contact Info for SBR member providing nomination

Describe your nominee using the bullet points below (Your response should not exceed 750 words)

- The sustainability changes this person brought about in their business or community.
- How do they work with or encourage others to engage in sustainable activities.
- Describe the impact of their activities.

Additional comments

[Empty rectangular box for additional comments]